Variation: Try using strawberries, bananas or other fruit in place of the mango next time you make a lassi.

Japanese Fruit Skewers with Plum Sauce

Fruit Skewers make a great snack or a side dish to a meal that includes fish. The skewers also make a tasty dessert.

Ingredients:

8 6-inch-long wooden skewers
2 large bananas, peeled and cut into 1-inch slices
1 cup watermelon chunks
1 cup canned whole pitted litchi fruit, drained
1 cup fresh strawberries, hulled
½ cup plum sauce

Directions

- Soak eight 6-inch-long skewers in cold water for 30 minutes so they will not burn during cooking.
- Preheat broiler or grill. Drain wooden skewers from water.
- Alternately thread banana chunks, watermelon chunks, litchis, and strawberries on each skewer.
- Brush fruit with the plum sauce.
- Place kebabs on rack in the grill or on a broiler pan. Cook 5 minutes, turning frequently.

Variation: The fruit skewers can also be served without broiling or grilling.

Muesli

Muesli is a healthy breakfast cereal that was created by a doctor in Switzerland as a hearty breakfast food.

Ingredients:

3 Tbsp rolled oats
1 Tbsp chopped mixed nuts
6 Tbsp water
1 Tbsp raisins
2 Tbsp lemon juice
1 apple
7 Tbsp milk
2 tsp honey

Directions

- At night, before you go to bed, put the rolled oats into a large bowl and pour the water on top.
- In the morning, peel the apple, cut it in half and then grate it. Add it to the bowl and then stir in the lemon juice.
- Gently stir the apple raisins and nuts into the softened oats. Pour a small amount of milk on top of the oats, and then drizzle the honey on the top of the milk.

Norwegian Berry Pudding

Many different types of berries are grown during the summer months in Norway.

Ingredients:

1 pound of raspberries, blueberries or strawberries, or a mixture of all three
1 Tbsp sugar
2 cups cold water
2 Tbsp cornstarch

Directions

- Put the fruit, sugar and water in a pan. Cook over low heat for five minutes until the fruit is soft.
- Let the fruit cool. Use the back of a spoon to push the berries through a sieve into a bowl. Throw away and bits left in the sieve.
- Put the cornstarch in a cup. Mix it with a tablespoon of the juices from the cooked berries, until it is smooth.
- Stir the cornstarch mixture into the fruit. Pour the fruit into a pan and bring it to a boil.
- Turn the heat down to low. Cook the fruit for five minutes, stirring constantly with a spoon.
- Pour the pudding into glasses or bowls and chill them in the refrigerator.

Rice and Lentil Salad

A staple food throughout the Middle East is the lentil. Lentils provide protein and can be substituted for meat.

Ingredients:

2 cups water
1 14-1/2 ounce can vegetable broth
½ cup brown lentils
1 cup basmati or long-grain rice
½ tsp salt
1 large green bell pepper, seeded and chopped
2 large tomato, chopped
1 Tbsp capers, drained
3 Tbsp olive oil
2 Tbsp fresh lemon juice

Directions

- In a 3-quart saucepan over high heat, heat water and vegetable broth to boiling.
- Add lentils; cover and simmer 25 minutes. Add basmati rice and salt to simmering mixture. Cover and simmer 20 minutes longer or until rice and lentils are tender.
- Remove from heat; stir in green pepper, tomatoes, capers, olive oil, and lemon juice. Toss to mix well. Serve warm, or refrigerate to serve cold later.

Tabbouleh

Bulgur is a grain that has a nutty flavor. It becomes soft as it absorbs the liquid from the salad.

Ingredients:

1 cup bulgur
1 cup hot water
3 cups fresh flat leaf parsley, chopped
4 scallions
3 lemons
1 garlic clove
2 Tbsp olive oil
½ tsp salt
¼ tsp pepper
¾ cup diced tomatoes

Directions

- Put the bulgur in a medium bowl with 1 cup of hot water. The bulgur will absorb the water.
- Wash the parsley in a colander under running water. Roll the herbs in paper towels to dry.
- Wash the scallions and pat dry. On a cutting board, cut off the roots and slice the white portion into 1/4 –inch slices. Finely chop the slices and discard the green tops.
- Roll the lemons on a flat surface to loosen the membranes. Cut the lemons in half. Squeeze each lemon half over a measuring cup until you have 1/2 cup of juice. Remove seeds.
- Peel the papery skin off the garlic clove. Slice the garlic with a paring knife and mince.
- Combine the scallions, lemon juice, garlic, olive oil, salt, and pepper in a small bowl and whisk together. Fold the lemon juice mixture into the bulgur with a spoon. Add the tomatoes and continue stirring until well combined.

West African Groundnut Stew

In West Africa peanuts are commonly called groundnuts because they are grown underneath the dirt. Peanuts are found in many West African countries such as Ghana, Ivory Coast and Senegal.

Ingredients:

2 cups water
1 cup long-grain rice
½ tsp salt
2 Tbsp canola oil
1 medium-size onion, chopped
3 small sweet-potatoes, peeled and cut crosswise into 1/2-inch thick slices
1 cup sliced okra
2 cups shredded green cabbage
1- 13.75 ounce can low-sodium chicken broth
½ cup natural chunky peanut butter
3 bananas, peeled and thinly sliced
1 tbsp chopped parsley
¼ cup chopped unsalted peanuts

Directions

- In a medium pot over high heat, heat water, rice, and salt to boiling.
- Reduce heat to low; cover and simmer 20 minutes until rice is tender.
- Meanwhile, in a 12-inch skillet over medium heat, heat the oil. Add the onion and cayenne pepper. Cook 5 minutes.
- Add the sweet potatoes, okra and cabbage.
- Cook 10 minutes longer stirring occasionally.
- Stir in chicken broth, peanut butter, bananas, and chopped parsley; heat to boiling.
- Reduce heat to low; simmer, uncovered, 5 minutes until thickened. Serve mixture over rice. Sprinkle with chopped peanuts.

Yellow Rice with Potato and Chickpeas

Indians eat rice with many meals. Pay careful attention when preparing this recipe to discover which spice causes the rice to turn yellow.

Ingredients:

2 Tbsp canola oil
1 medium-size onion, diced
1 medium-size all-purpose potato, diced
3 cups water
1 cup basmati or long-grain rice
 $\frac{3}{4}$ tsp salt
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp cumin seeds
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp ground turmeric
1 cup canned chickpeas, rinsed and drained

Directions

- In a 3-quart saucepan over medium heat, heat oil; add onion and potato. Cook 5 minutes, stirring occasionally.
- Add water, rice, salt, cumin seeds, and turmeric; over high heat, heat to boiling.
- Reduce heat to low; cover and simmer 20 minutes, or until rice and potatoes are tender. During the last 5 minutes of cooking, stir in chickpeas.
